Della CABOS MEXICO ESCAPES

EXCURSIONS: TODOS SANTOS AND CERRITOS

Mountain Potters

outhern Baja has plenty of magic. Much of it is exident in Los Cabos, and some you'll find a little of the beaten path. The area report fools Santon is one of those hidden germ, and it makes a perfect day trip ideal/risel

And while Todos itself is a fun and colorful excursion, the mountains outside of town reveal a world nearly lest to nuderrity, where local outfilter Todos Santos Eco Adventures lets you see first-hand the lifestlyle of the mountain potters who live very simply on small, self-sustaining mountain zanchitos.

After a short drive into the hills, you're greeted by local matron Defia Ramona (pitchered above) and invited to join the pottery class she offers to guests of Todes Samos Eco Adventures. She explains how the arrisans source clay from readly sittes, and she shares stories of life in the mountains as the helps you create your own sculpture from raw materials.

After the pottery lesson, Doña Ramona demonstrates traditional tortila making over her oxidoor store grill, With a supply of wern handmade tortillas in hand, her cooks bunch for the group, using machaco from local heef; homemade refried beans, tomatific salsa made with peoduce from her own garden and profess a sweet and target goage for monaroho to watch it all down with. This unique, may suddated dining experience and genuise deplay of hospitality is the perfect ending to a transporting visit.

Dona Ramona explains how the artisans source clay from nearby sites, AND SHE SHARES STORIES OF LIFE IN THE MOUNTAINS as she helps you create your own sculpture from raw materials.

unt south of Todos Sarrios on the Pacific side of the Baja is Cernifice Beach, popular for 116 long, uncovered braches and array of water sports. While the Baja's best surfing spots will always be open to debate. Cernifice Beach and Todos Sarrios boast sorve of the best point brasks in Baja Sarrios Popular beaches in the area include Playa Las Palmas and Playa San Pedrito, located a tew miles south of Todes. Both are favored by surfers and local residents, and Playa Los Certifos labout 8 miles south of Todos Santos, at len 66.5 on the highway is one of the beat family recreation areas in all of Baja — it's a draw for its wide, shallow eximming beach and a popular surf break along a rocky point at its north end.

Centitos Beach caters to both active and relaxation-minded visitors. For surfing and biogic boarding, a rearby mobile Costa Azul ship can provide all the gear and lessons you'll need (as will the Pisscadero Surf Camp located at kim 64).

Wind down, find friends, and connect at the Cerritos Blach Club's popular open-air palapa bar and restaurant, which has a post table, flat screens, and five whereas internet, Indulge in their variety of coladies, dialquiris, and marganitas, and great local fare like cervithe-staffed avocados and chipotic shiring.

62 DelMarto/Cabos.com